Presidential Words For August 2022

Covid and Masks

Unfortunately, we have had a Covid breakout at WSQ which led the Management Committee to shut the club until Sunday 31 July in an endeavour to prevent any further spread amongst members. The good news is that the infected members appear to have recovered well.

We will reopen on Monday 1 August. However, as previously advised, it has been decided that mask wearing will be mandatory for all members and visitors at WSQ Hall until further notice. Although masks may be removed while eating and drinking, please ensure that it remains in place while queuing up in the kitchen. Please also be diligent with other features of our Covid Safe plan, including social distancing, hand washing and not attending if you are feeling unwell. These are all important measures in minimising the risk of transmission.

Mask wearing will also be mandatory for WSQ members at external events, including the Mt Coot-tha Exhibition (6-8 August) and Bunnings Sausage Sizzle (Sunday 14 August). We will have masks on hand at Mt Coot-tha to offer to patrons who aren't wearing one.

The Management Committee is committed to ensuring the safety and wellbeing of all of our members. To enable us to monitor the position during this current Covid wave, please let a Committee member know if you record a positive rapid antigen test after attending the club. Of course, please do not attend the club if you are experiencing flu like symptoms.

Competition

Competition judging etc. has been completed, and Richard Cooper, the Chair of the Competition Sub-Committee, has penned some comments which appear later in the newsletter. The Covid enforced shut down has also caused the Awards and Trophies Presentation to be postponed until Saturday 13 August. I hope that as many of you as possible are able to attend. I'm sure that you'll be amazed at the quality of the entries.

It had been planned that all the winning entries would be on display at Mt Coot-tha but, obviously, this can't be done now. Therefore, this year we will do things a little differently. So that we don't pre-empt the prize presentations, we will now display all entries which achieved a minimum score (which will remain secret for now). This will be a "best of the best" gallery type display.

Prior to the Awards and Trophies Presentation, we need to print and laminate a multitude of certificates. If you have a laminator at home, could I ask that you loan it to us for a week or so as a production line of laminators

Mt Coot-tha Exhibition

The Mt Coot-tha Exhibition is this coming weekend, 6 and 7 August with setup on Friday morning 5 August. We are still short of volunteers in some areas, so if you can spare an hour or two, please put your name down on the volunteer sheets.

As usual, we are also seeking donations of cakes, biscuits, scones etc. for the Café. Could you please note the sheet in the auditorium with what you will be bringing; this helps with planning the catering.

We will have some tables on which non-electrical woodworking tools can be placed for sale; this proved popular last year.

Bunnings Sausage Sizzle

As mentioned last month, we have a Sausage Sizzle at Bunnings Mt Gravatt on Sunday 14 August. Volunteers are still required, so please put your name on the volunteer sheet if you are able to spare some time.

We also have another BBQ scheduled for Saturday 15 October. Please note that date in your diary; a volunteer sheet will be available shortly.

Until next month,

John Reed
President

Date Claimers for Demonstrations and Show & Tell Forums

Our Demonstrations on the first Saturday morning of each month are an excellent way to learn new skills and ideas from our talented demonstrators. You will have the opportunity to ask questions of our demonstrators and see a project evolve before your very eyes.

The Show & Tell Forum on the third Saturday morning of each month are designed to give you a couple of weeks to have a go at the project demonstrated the fortnight before and bring your complete or incomplete attempt to receive feedback on your efforts. This is a fabulous learning opportunity, particularly for relatively new members and those wishing to further develop their mastery of skills and techniques.

Date	Demonstration	Show & Tell Forum
6 August	No demonstration because of Mt Coot-tha Exhibition.
20 August		Perfect opportunity to bring along experiments with resin and/or any other project. Come along and sit around the table – discussions are always interesting.
3 September	Thread chasing Ken Rays will demonstrate the skill and techniques of thread-chasing. This should prove to be a popular and interesting demonstration. Though originally a member of WSQ, Ken is a member of the Redcliffe and District Woodcrafters, so he will be travelling from the Peninsula area to Pine St for this demonstration. Join Zoom Meeting https://us02web.zoom.us/j/87874958421?pwd=Y1JYVUJhNXVWQjlQWUg5ZUN6a2xDdz09 Meeting ID: 878 7495 8421 Passcode: 188272 9 am Start

17 September		Bring along your thread chasing efforts, assuming you have the necessary equipment at home, or any other project you have been busy with.
1 October	3 Cornered Bowl John Carney will demonstrate the turning of a 3 Cornered bowl. He has been diligently working on 3 cornered bowls at Pine St on a Tuesday and has lots of pointers to pass on about the skills and techniques involved.
15 October		Bring along your 3 Cornered Bowls or any other project you have been working on. Share a 'cuppa' and chat about any project, or simply listen in to the interesting conversations about the projects of other members.
5 November	Inside out turning Steve Schuhmacher from Bayside will demonstrate inside out turning.

WSQ 2022 Competition

Top Secret

The judging has been done and the results are in for this year's Competition.

However, given the challenges we all face with Covid 19, the WSQ Management Committee have decided to close the Club until the first week of August. This has meant a deferral of the announcement of the winning pieces in the Competition.

It is planned that selected entries in the Competition will be on display at Mt Coot-tha on the weekend of 6 and 7 August and therefore eligible for The People's Choice Award. All attendees at the Mt Coot-tha exhibition will be invited to express their choice for this award.

The announcement and presentation of Awards & Trophies will be held in the Auditorium at WSQ on Saturday 13 August commencing at 9.00am. Our Patron, Ian McKenzie will be in attendance that morning to make the presentations.

The Competition

The Competition Sub-committee was pleased with the level of support with 139 entries across most categories. What surprised the Sub-committee was the lack of an entry in the Pen and Pencil category and only one entry in the Christmas Decoration category. We have a number of turners in the club who have specialised in producing wonderful pieces in both these categories.

All woodturners of Pens and Pencils and Christmas Decorations are encouraged to start preparations now for their entries (plural) in the 2023 Competition.

In speaking with the judges after judging was completed, they all expressed the view that the standard and quality of the entries across all categories was excellent in every respect, design, workmanship, finish, etc. Their comments on each entry (judged by two judges acting independently) will be given to each entrant after the presentation of Awards & Trophies.

Photographs of Competition Entries

The Competition Sub-Committee is very grateful to Georgie Crossley for her time and expertise in photographing all 139 entries in the competition, not just the award-winning pieces as in previous competitions. If you would like copies of the photos of your piece(s), please contact Brian Creese by email at (brian.creese@bigpond.com).

Keep up the good work. We look forward to more than 150 entries in the 2023 Competition.

Resin Workshop - 2 July 2022

On a very cold and wet Saturday morning 9 brave members made the trip to Natural Edge Timbers in Corunna Street, Albion to participate in a very informative and enjoyable workshop conducted by Jason Heaton.

Jason had very kindly agreed to host the workshop at no cost to our members in the interests of establishing a relationship with fellow lovers of all things wood. All who attended certainly enjoyed the generous sharing of his knowledge and experience of using resin. His business is primarily concerned with selling a huge range of magnificent slabs of timber, resin, various dyes and pigments and some cut timber and pieces of burl. Pen makers would have a field day with the slices of burl he has on display. He also runs regular 1-day workshops where participants mix resin and pour to into a prepared frame to produce a serving board.

During the workshop Jason demonstrated the most efficient ways of weighing and mixing resin and adding various dyes and pigments. Each of us had the opportunity to mix a pot of resin then separate it into plastic containers and experiment with a whole range of dyes and pigments. There certainly were some colourful combinations produced. We then used the time-lapse facility on our phones to record the 'living' process of the resin transforming itself as it cured.

Jason Heaton explaining some of the finer points to Don McMillan, George Wolf and Toni Dowd

Keith Greenland, John Carney, Alan Loxton, John Reed and Greg Fletcher listen attentively having mixed some colours in their plastic containers

Quite a number of our members have already done Jason's 1-day workshop and found it enjoyable, informative and productive with bragging rights over their creative use of colours in the resin. There is a range of pre-prepared boards available for purchase, round and rectangular, for those who want to try their resin skills at home. ## Show and Tell Forum - 16 July 2022

In the aftermath of our resin workshop, two of our members brought along resin projects to show and discuss. We were also treated to a look at John Carney's very flash tri-cornered bowl (subject of a future demo) and Rob McGregor's beautifully made guitar.

It was a very interesting morning and there was a bit of something for everyone to marvel at.

Alan Short brought along his slice of camphor with a resin in-fill seeking some input to explain a couple of holes and splits in the resin.

I'm not too sure that our collective wisdom was able to help him too much, but John Carney did try to divulge some of the secrets revealed in Jason Heaton's resin workshop.

Gary Bidgood, a master in the use of the technology required for his CNC router and a very creative man, brought along this beautiful beaker with resin inlays. You will notice that the design has been reversed so that the birds at the top of the motif face each other on this side of the beaker.

Don McMillan, having watched the most recent of the Record demonstrations brought along his series of Gonks. We agreed that the chap in the bowler hat was the pick of the bunch!

Now, if you are wondering what this beautifully engineered object is – it is a taper chuck with a revolving live centre. It proved irresistible to George Wolf, who just had to add it to his growing collection of turning attachments. The excitement on his face as he explained the intricacies of his new toy was delightful to see.

Can't wait for next Show and Tell on 21 August to see his latest purchase!

Upcycling a Dining Room Table

With the help of the Woodturners Society of Qld and Brian Creese, my fiancé and I early this year upcycled a tired old pine table into our lovely, new dining room masterpiece.

After trying to find a store-bought table for months, but unable to find a style or quality we liked, we spotted a table we could upcycle on Gumtree for $50. With the original owners offloading their items due to a lifestyle change up north, a quick trip to Brendale pursued and with a very snug fit in the Kia the project had begun.

Next on the list was a trip to Bunnings to purchase some Tasmanian Oak which would form the new table top. Approximately 100 cuts later the top started to take shape. Of course, no project is complete without its challenges and 2 nails in the trusty old nail gun gave way. Being a little stingy, the initial thought was to try and do it by hand but after one hit of the hammer it was back to Bunnings for a new nail gun. Best several hundred dollars spent!

To complete our little project, we stumbled across the Woodturners Society of Qld and asked if they could help us turn the ugly square legs into something spectacular. Brian Creese was so generous with his time, turning out 4 perfect legs.

The design of the legs was based on one that we found and liked on the internet. Brian used the photo to prepare a plan, including calculation of diameter and positions of the critical high points and low points. After turning one leg using the photo-based plan, he sent a photo for our approval. A few days later, he finished the other three legs ready for pick up. Being radiata pine, some of the legs had knots with holes around them, which needed to be filled before painting.

Final steps were a quick sand, filling the nail holes with some coloured wax before applying a lovely oak stain.

We are so happy with the finished product. We don't have all the tools to take it to the next level and it's far from perfect, but we are so happy with the finished product. Each night we sit down to dinner as a family and it reminds us what you can achieve with a bit of imagination and hard work. Along the way I've also fallen in love with the art of woodturning and have completed the beginners training course with amazing conveners, Mick and Paul.

Thanks Brian and the Woodturners Society of Qld.
